

TUC Welfare poll – correct answers
Out of every £100 spent from the welfare budget, can you tell me how much of that is claimed fraudulently (i.e. people who dishonestly claim more benefits than they are entitled to)?	70p or to nearest pound £1
The government's welfare budget pays for pensions, tax credits, benefits for the unemployed, the disabled and other groups. Out of every £100 of this welfare budget, how much do you think is spent on benefits for the unemployed? (For example, if you think that half of the budget is spent on benefits for unemployed people, then please write in '50'. Even if you are not sure, please just give your best guess and answer in whole numbers, you do not need to include the £ sign.)	£3
Out of every 100 people who sign on to make a claim for Jobseeker's Allowance, approximately how many do you think go on to receive it for more than a year?	27.8 or 30 to nearest 10
Thinking again of the unemployed couple with two children, aged 6 and 10. Excluding any other benefits such as housing, council tax or child benefits, approximately how much do you think they would receive in unemployment benefit (Jobseeker's Allowance) PER WEEK?	£111.45
Thinking again of the unemployed couple with two children, aged 6 and 10, if one of the parents got a job paying the minimum wage for 30 hours a week, in general, do you think they would be financially better or worse off or would there be no difference?	Better off
Approximately, by how much do you think that they would better off PER WEEK?	£138
Which ONE of the following groups do you think will be MOST affected by this move to limit many benefits to one percent?	People who are employed	